On the arrival of Acharyadeva a meeting of the Governing Body was to be held in which Kunja Babu, the Secretary, was to submit a statement of accounts with a statement of all assets and liabilities of the Mission. The real intention of Kunja Babu was to avoid submission of accounts and for that purpose he wanted to postpone the meeting of the Governing Body by keeping away the Acharyadev. Kunja Babu from this time began to hold secret meetings in the house of the widows of J. B. Dutt with some members of the Mission whom he induced to support his unconstitutional conduct namely B. S. The pamphlet showed the importance of Kunja Babu but admitted that the Governing Body was formed in compliance with the last wishes of Srila Prabhupad. Note – Simultaneously some anonymous letters regarding alleged disagreement in the selection of Acharyadeva were published from time to time in several newspapers which were promptly contradicted by the Mission. In this connection Paramananda's (Plff No. 1) letter dated to Amulya Babu may be of interest and also importance. From this Kunja Babu's henchmen began to leave Calcutta Gaudiya Math secretly.
